Election Countdown: 29 days left!

October 6, 2008

Dedicated to Electing Conservation Leaders
SPECIAL EDITION: Rhinelander, Minocqua, Eagle River

Just 5 seats away from a pro-conservation majority...

Whew!!! Last week, we kicked off the first week of the campaign, and it was a busy one! In just a week, volunteers like you talked directly to 4000 voters!!!

Overall, we need to call 12,000 undecided voters, knock on 12,000 doors, and put up 1500 yard signs in order to get 5 new conservationists into office!

You'd be surprised by how many voters are very clear about who is running for President, but have no idea who will be the candidate to best represent their values at the bottom of the ticket!

Those folks need to hear from us! With just 29 days left before the elections on November 4th, we need YOUR HELP!

Volunteers Needed!

This week, we need to talk to 1100 undecided voters in Paul Tubbs' district alone! We NEED your help to get us there!!!

Phonebank from HOME--Can't make it to an office? We can set you up online--contact laurel@conservationvoters.org for details.

Also, we need to get the word out that Paul Tubbs is THE pro-conservation candidate in the district! If you live in Assembly District 34 and are willing to submit a letter to the editor (we can help you out with a template), click here.

Upcoming Volunteer Events!

10/18-10/19, Sat-Sun: Help us go door-to-door for Paul Tubbs!!!

If you live there, or are able to get away for 1 day or the whole weekend, join WLCV and other volunteers to put up yard signs, make phone calls, and knock on doors!
