

Election Countdown: 29 days left!

October 6, 2008

Dedicated to Electing Conservation Leaders
SPECIAL EDITION: Southeast WI

Just 5 seats away from a pro-conservation majority...

Whew!!! Last week, we kicked off the first week of the campaign, and it was a busy one! In just a week, volunteers like you talked directly to 4000 voters!!!

Overall, we need to call 12,000 undecided voters, knock on 12,000 doors, and put up 1500 yard signs in order to get 5 new conservationists into office!

You'd be surprised by how many voters are very clear about who is running for President, but have no idea who will be the candidate to best represent their values at the bottom of the ticket!

Those folks need to hear from us! With just 29 days left before the elections on November 4th, we need YOUR HELP!

Volunteers Needed!

This week, the Milwaukee office needs to talk to 1100 voters around Wisconsin! Come in to our office this week and spend a few hours making the difference.

Upcoming Volunteer Events!

10/18-10/19, Sat-Sun: Conservationists like you will be taking to the streets of Assembly District 34!

If you live there, or are able to get away for 1 day or the whole weekend, join WLCV and other volunteers to put up yard signs, make phone calls, and knock on doors! If interested, please email laurel@conservationvoters.org.

Volunteer Spotlight-- Todd & Kim Albano

A BIG THANKS to Todd and Kim Albano of Woodruff, and all our volunteers who showed their support for Paul Tubbs in the race for Assembly District 34 this past weekend by helping put up yard signs.

We NEED YOUR HELP, too, because this work would not get done without you! To volunteer, simply email laurel@conservationvoters.org.
